

REPUBLICAN WAR IN THE SENATE GROWS BITTER

Progressives Failing to Get
Committee Demands May
Fight in the Open.

WASHINGTON, April 26.—The split in the Republican ranks which threatened the regular Republican majority today when the regular Republicans flatly refused to meet three demands of the progressives. These demands were that Senator La Follette be given a place on the committee on interstate commerce, Strawn on foreign regulations and Cummings on finance. Coupled with these demands was the one that Senator Hiram was appointed to the appropriations committee, which was granted.

The meeting today was brief and hot. Senator Gallinger, chairman of the committee, laid before it a completed list of appointments to the various committees. When it was discovered by Senator La Follette that only one of the four final progressive claims had been allowed he immediately announced his complete disapproval of the tentative list.

"I reserve the right to object further," he said, "because we consider we have been treated unfairly and unjustly."

On a vote to adopt the Gallinger list, the committee divided sharply, 7 to 4, the four progressives voting solidly. The caucus which meets at 8 o'clock probably will support the regulars in their selection, and the fight then will be carried to the floor of the Senate.

Senators of every political shade were active today preparing for a struggle which may take place on the Senate floor tomorrow. Republican factions are at odds over the demands made by the insurgents and rejected by the majority of the Committee on Commerce and some of the Democrats are also dissatisfied with the assignments said to have been given them by the minority steering committee.

The Republican caucus will be presented at the caucus called for today and which promises to be a stormy affair, while Democratic lists will be considered at a party caucus called for 10:30 A. M. tomorrow.

Whether the Republican fight will be carried to the Senate floor tomorrow will be determined by a meeting of the insurgents to-night after the adjournment of the caucus.

FOUND DEAD IN CHAIR WHEN DOOR IS FORCED.

George F. Parmelee of New York Dies Suddenly in Springfield (Mass.) Hotel.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., April 26.—Sitting in a chair fully dressed the body of a man who had registered as George F. Parmelee, of No. 51 East Fifty-second street, New York City, was found yesterday by employees of a local hotel. The man arrived here Monday night and when he failed to put in an appearance about the hotel Tuesday the door of his room was forced. Death was pronounced to be due to Bright's disease.

George F. Parmelee, a former treasurer of the Produce Exchange, was sixty-five years old and for two years had suffered from kidney trouble. It was said at his home, No. 51 East Fifty-second street, today that Mr. Parmelee had come to Springfield on business. Relatives went there today to bring the body to New York.

Mr. Parmelee was the son of Spencer Thomas Parmelee of Centerville, Conn., who made a great fortune in the rubber goods manufacturing business before the civil war. Mr. Parmelee entered the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University with the class of 1887, but left in his second year. He was married in 1887 to Miss Mary Mason of this city, who survives him. He was treasurer of the Central Presbyterian Church.

British suffragettes here.

A family of militant British suffragettes arrived here today on the Royal Mail Steamship Clyde. They are Mrs. Annie Thorne, her two daughters, Helen and Catherine, and her husband, Mr. W. P. Thorne. All have been behind prison bars as the result of tomorrows storming of the House of Commons.

Mrs. Thorne said that they had crossed the Atlantic merely for a rest and would not lift their voices in the cause of political suffrage here.

DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION FAILED
—THE GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY
PROVES ITS MERIT.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is one of the patent medicines that is better than many of the prescriptions prescribed by doctors—at least it has done more good for backache and kidney trouble than any other medicine I know of, and I always recommend it to my friends, as I know it can't be beat.

I had a severe backache some time ago which could not be cured by the doctors' medicine. I am glad to say, however, that Swamp-Root cured me in a few weeks' time.

No certain am I that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a medicine of merit that I send you this testimonial, which you can use any time.

Yours very truly,
JACOB DORNACHER,
Edwardsville, Ill.
